

Bilingual (Spanish/English) Residential Services Caseworker II, Full Time

We are currently seeking a full time Bilingual Residential Services Caseworker to join our team providing comprehensive supportive services including case management, advocacy and accompaniment to adults and children in our emergency shelter, transitional housing, and community housing programs. Residential Services Caseworkers offer these services in person at our residential site, and out in the community.

The schedule will be either Sunday through Thursday with two evening shifts a week, or Tuesday to Saturday with two evening shifts a week. Evening shifts are 12pm to 8:30pm, and we have some flexibility around which evenings are worked. In your cover letter please tell us which schedule you want to be considered for, and which evenings you are available to work.

Residential Services Caseworkers deliver a confidential, efficient, and friendly service to our shelter clients in a trauma-informed, empathetic, and non-judgmental manner. They must be able to work independently with minimum supervision, therefore previous experience working with DV survivors, case management experience, and/or providing crisis intervention services are required. Caseworkers also provide interventions like safety planning, accompaniment, referrals and advocacy to our clients.
